County Treasurer Confesses
Story of Robbery Was Hoax.

(By the Associated Press.)
MARION, Jan. 28.—Treasurer Harry C. Forray, of Marion county, who reported Wednesday that he had been robbed of $14,303 by two bandits who knocked him unconscious in his office in the court house, was arrested early today and confessed to the theft of the money. The police announced today.
Not satisfied with this story of the robbery the police became suspicious of Forray and late last night obtained a written confession from him, they say, telling that he stole the money from the court house safe Tuesday night, taking it to his home where he hid it in a chest.
Forray was placed under arrest early today, almost immediately following the arrival of a new baby at his home. He is the father of three other children, is 35 years of age and is a democrat. He was defeated for re-election last November. Forray in his signed confession said he went deeply into debt last fall during his unsuccessful campaign for re-election and had heavily mortgaged two houses he owned. His friends believe that worry affected his mind.

MEDICAL BILL IS BEFORE HOUSE

Would Create Examining
Board for Chiropractors
In This State.

(By the Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 28.—Fought by opponents every time the bill was brought into reading before the senate, and finally passed with a substantial majority over those who sought to require chiropractors to pass a medical examination before permitted to practice in the state, Senate Bill No. 35, by Senators Leedy and Cartwright, has been referred to the house for acceptance.
The bill is an act to regulate the practice of chiropractic; to create a board of chiropractic examiners and to provide for the appointment of same; to fix rules and regulations governing said board; to provide a curriculum; to provide for the disposal of the fund arising from said fees; to regulate the holding of meetings of said board and the issuance of licenses to practice chiropractic; to provide a penalty for practicing chiropractic without a license; providing for the educational standard required and defining the science of chiropractic and repealing all conflicting acts.
Opponents of the measure in its present form sought to amend the bill so as to make chiropractors subject to a medical examination in connection with their examination as a chiropractor. Debate was lively and touched upon practically every phase of chiropractic treatment and its relation to the medical mind. The bill was passed by the senate Monday afternoon.
The bill calls for a board of the examining chiropractors, eligible to licenses to practice in the state and graduates of schools of chiropractic who have practiced continuously in Oklahoma for and during a period of five years next preceding the taking effect of this act. The board is to be appointed by the governor, one to serve one year, the second for two years and the third for three years.
The board is to elect a president, treasurer and secretary, and adopt rules and regulations for procedure. After the first meeting the board shall confer regularly on the second Monday in January and July each year at the capitol and hold such adjourned meetings as shall be found expedient.
Applications for practice shall be made to the board, enclosing his or her qualifications, and attached with a fee of $25. If approved the $25 is retained upon deposit of another $25, and if the applicant fails examination such will be returned. The board will examine all applicants for the practice of chiropractic principles anatomy, histology, physiology, symptomatology, orthopedics, chemistry, spinography, diagnosis, sanitation and hygiene, pathology, public health service and ad-justistry. Members of the board would receive $20 per diem for each day necessarily spent in the discharge of his duties, and in addition thereto 5 cents per mile for travel on business of the board.
Mr. and Mrs. John Pelton returned to their home in Sulphur today after spending several days here this week visiting friends and looking after various business matters.

Alleged Outlaw On Trial For Old Deed

Tales of Bandit Gangs of Frontier Days To Be Recalled.

(By the Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 28.—Tales of frontier days and of bandit gangs who roamed the plains of Oklahoma a score of years ago are expected to be recounted in federal court here in connection with the trial of Clarence Simmons, alleged member of a former notorious band of outlaws. The trial was to start today.
Simmons is to be tried on an indictment returned in the federal court of the southern district of Iowa charging him with wounding a United States marshal in a gun fight near the present city of Pawhuska, Oklahoma, in 1903. Wiley Haines, the marshal whom Simmons is charged with having wounded, is to be one of the more than one hundred witnesses subpoenaed by the government in a number of states in the middle west.

FOR LEAVING CHILDREN

(By the Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 27.—A bill seeking to prevent wife abandonment and children under the age of 14 years, in destitute circumstances, and providing a penalty therefor, has been introduced in the senate of the Eighth legislature. Any persons found guilty of such abandonment would be liable to a fine of not less than $100 or more than $500 or imprisonment at hard labor for a period of one month or more than 12 months, or both.

U.S. Consumes
More Oil Than
It Produces

Report for 1920 Shows the Need of Looking to Foreign Supply.

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28th.—Oil production in the United States in 1920 totaled 443,192,000 barrels, while consumption of oil in the United States reached 531,186,000 barrels. Despite the excess of consumption over production, the end of the year showed a net increase in petroleum stock of more than ten million barrels.
The figures on oil for the year of 1920 were announced today in a preliminary survey. The total production estimate, the survey said, probably would be included when the amount of oil consumed on the leases is known and after allowance is made for net changes in stock held by producers on the leases, but as it stands it represents a gain of 17 per cent as compared with 1919 and of 78 per cent as compared with 1913. Imports of petroleum during 1920 amounted to 198,175,000 barrels, more than double the imports of 1919, and almost five times greater than the imports in 1913.
"These impressive figures," the survey comments, "emphasize the growing dependence of the United States on foreign supply."

MAY REVEAL STORY OF RIOT KILLINGS

(By the Associated Press.)
WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Jan. 28.—Examination of a telegram in an effort to obtain a jury in connection with the killing of Albert Felts, in the Matewan battle last May, was continued today in the circuit court here. Six jurors were tentatively selected yesterday.
There have been persistent rumors since the trials began that a defendant, said to be a relative of one of the counsel for the state, would go on the stand and tell the whole story of the battle. So slowly did the examinations proceed that Judge Bailey ordered all witnesses excused until Monday.

The average wage rate for labor hired by the month it was $46.83 with board, and $64.95 without board; for day labor at harvest $3.60 with board and $4.36 without board. For day labor other than harvest the scale averaged $2.86 with board and $2.59 without board.

ALLIES DEADLOCK ON QUESTION OF HUN PAYMENTS

France Wants Fulfillment of Treaty, England Has Another Plan.

(By the Associated Press.)
PARIS, Jan. 28.—The divergence of views of members of the allied supreme council regarding German reparation caused an interruption of the conference today and in some quarters it is reported as in danger of breaking up.
The crisis came over the question of finding the total amount of reparation due from Germany and methods of payment.
The session of the council which was to have begun at 4:30 this afternoon was abandoned.
PARIS, Jan. 28.—Representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium and Japan attending the session here of the supreme allied council, watched this morning what Premier Briand of France described as the "decisive day" of the meeting.
The discordant views of the reparation question, especially those of France and Great Britain, which were presented at yesterday's brief session, had brought about a virtual deadlock and it seemed the culminating period of the conference had arrived.
It was indicated by Premier Lloyd George yesterday that the whole reparation question would not be solved at the present meeting. All that could be accomplished, he said, would be the fixing of the amount of Germany's debt and the way it should be paid. Later, he asserted, the allied and German delegates would meet for a final discussion of the settlement.

PLAN TO CONNECT
COUNTRIES WITH FERRY SYSTEMS

(By the Associated Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 28.—A plan for linking up Sweden with England by means of a train ferry to cost 10,000,000 pounds is being considered by business men of the two nations.

The scheme aims at the establishment of a daily service by at least six 13,000-ton ships of 18 knots speed, each capable of carrying 50 railroad cars. As the gauges of the British and Swedish railroads are the same, rapidity of transportation would be assured.
The Swedish government is understood to be willing to guarantee a 10 per cent return over a given number of years, if Britain will guarantee the capital necessary for the initial outlay.

ARMY APPROPRIATION
IS CUT 63 MILLION

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Framed to provide for a force of 150,000 regulars, the army appropriation bill reported to the house today, carried a total of $328,861,132, a reduction of 63,697,242 from current appropriations. The war department has asked for $692,811,970. The Philippine scouts, numbering about 6,500 men, 2,500 flying cadets and 14,000 commissioned officers, are not included in the 150,000 total.
Reduction in the army, the commission reports said, was proposed with a view to early withdrawal of Americans in Germany. Chairman Anthony of the military subcommittee of the appropriation committee, told the house that the present plan of the war department to maintain nine division camps, erected during the war, was an unnecessary waste and expense.
The report said the committee believed that if the war department would follow a policy of permitting the growth of the national guard along the most economic and useful lines, which are infantry organizations and would minimize the organization of the branches of the guard, which regarded the issue and maintenance of animals and motors an especial technical equipment, that material economies could be effected.

Splitting Hairs Over Nothing
Why Mills of Justice Grind So Slowly

How Judge Bolen has managed to bring the work of his court down to the present day only 24 hours behind the schedule is one of the miracles mentioned most by men who frequent the corridors of justice.
First it was the jurors, many of whom were late the opening day. His honor called the multiplication table into court and demonstrated to the jurors present that it took 33 1-3 cents a minute to run the court, and explained how painful it would be for him if it should become necessary for some of them to make a small donation, etc. The jurors are now the most faithful of his children.
Next it was the witnesses. They just couldn't be on time. One man could not leave home at morning until he had manipulated the turgid under of a mooly cow; another was delayed till the sheriff came after him, by thunderstorms and rising streams, and so on, ad infinitum. His honor got hard boiled. One of the recalcitrants was entertained at the jail overnight, and the witnesses now arrive a day ahead of time.
But now the thorn in his honor's side is a bunch of very technical lawyers, and then, too, some delays cannot be remedied which appear to the layman to be obnoxious. Take for illustration, the following example:
A case is being tried: jurge, jury, witnesses, counsel and spectators, all on hand.
Wayne Wadlington: Did you go to the home of the defendant on the night of December 1, 1901?
Witness: Yes, sir.
Wayne W.: State to the jury what conversation you had with the defendant at that time.
Bob Roland: I object, your honor, it ain't fair.
Wayne W.: I wish to prove, your honor, that this witness had the following conversation with the defendant.
Bob R.: I request that your honor retire the jury until this matter is settled.
The court: Get out of here with 'em. Kit. Keep your eye on 'em. Now, gentlemen (as the jury files out), get at this matter, pronto.
The lawyers argue the matter for 24 minutes, quoting everything from Blackstone to Bill Nye, and finally his honor orders the jury to return.
Answer the question instructs the judge, as the jury take their places.
Wayne W.: The question I asked you was, "State to the jury what conversation you had with the defendant at that time."
The court: Answer the question.
Witness: He was not at home, I did not talk to him.
The time consumed in this important matter was 27 minutes, which, figured at 33 1-3 cents a minute, amounts to exactly $9.

Girl Accuses Man
of Wronging Her

Enticed Her Into Auto and Drove Into Country,
She Charges.

The fate of Joe Parks, on trial in district court here since yesterday morning on a charge of second degree rape, was placed in the hands of a jury of twelve men as the News goes to press for this evening's edition.
It is for them to decide whether Parks took advantage of 14 year old Eva Baze on the day of September 26, 1919, or that the girl was mistaken in her identification of the man she claims wronged her.
"That is the man who wronged me!"
Pointing an accusing finger at Joe Parks, 28, of Stratford, Eva Baze, now 15 years old, told a jury in district court here yesterday a revolting story of how she had been enticed into an automobile by Parks and wronged.
The girl was the first witness for the state in the case wherein Parks is charged with second degree rape, she claiming to be the victim of his alleged enforced attentions.
According to the witness, she was placed in an automobile on Main street about 5 o'clock the morning of September 26, 1919, by a man whom she later identified as the defendant, and was taken to a secluded spot where she was ravished. She was then brought back to the city by the man, and permitted to alight from the car, just before dark.
While the witness claimed that she had held back, and told the driver of the car that she would not go with him, she admitted that she made no outcry and did nothing to attract the attention of persons on the street to the fact that she was being forced to do something against her will.
Immediately after alighting from the car she started home and met her mother coming toward town. Upon being questioned by her mother as to where she had been, she told a part of the experience of the afternoon, and finished telling the story when they reached home, in the presence of her father.
Up to this time she did not know the name of the defendant, but knew him by sight. She claimed that they had spoken to each other several times on the street prior to that day, but she had never stopped to talk with him.
She went with her parents to the chief of police that night and told her story to the chief, giving a description of the alleged criminal. This information led to the arrest of Joe Parks the following day, whom she identified as the man who had mistreated her.
Parks, claiming innocence, was bound over without bail and committed to jail to await a trial on the charge of rape. At the outset of the trial Thursday afternoon, the charge was reduced from rape to constructive rape which eliminates the charge of force, and means only that the injured girl was under the age of 16 years when the alleged crime was committed. Bloody garments, said to have been worn by the girl the day the crime is alleged to have been committed, were offered in evidence,

FREE MATINEE TO HELP EUROPE'S
STARVING BABIES

American Theater Invites Public To Performance
Sunday Afternoon.

The heart cries of the starving children of Europe will be answered in a unique manner in this city, when the American Theater will hold a free matinee performance for the benefit of the European Relief Council, Sunday, January 30. Though no admission charge will be made, everyone will be enabled to contribute to the fund which Herbert Hoover is sponsoring to care for the famine-warped bodies of the children of the war-weary countries of Europe. There are 3,500,000 starving little tots just beyond the Atlantic, and the European Relief Council has taken the task of feeding them upon its shoulders. The Council is headed by Herbert Hoover, Franklin K. Lane, former secretary of the interior, occupies the position of treasurer, and is comprised of the following organizations: American Friends Service Committee, American Red Cross, American Relief Administration, Federal Council of the Churches of Christ, Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Knights of Columbus, Young Men's Christian Association and Young Women's Christian Association.
In attending the matinee at the American Theater, you will be one of ten million visible guests who will be entertained in American cities on that day. That 3,500,000 children—the invisible guests—may be saved.

Everything will be donated for the performance that every penny donated may go direct to the council. Manager George will provide the theatre, while all his employees are donating their services upon this day. The large motion picture producing and distributing corporations, through their Dallas exchanges are supplying the screen program.
It is expected that for once the lure of the open road and the speeding car will be foregotten for the two hours of entertainment which will be offered at the theatre. Entertainment which is doubly satisfying, for not only will the person attending enjoy an excellent photographic program, but he will have the added satisfaction of knowing that his contribution aided in abetting life in some young body half the world away. The motto of the theatre men throughout the country in their campaign to raise money to aid Mr. Hoover and his associates in carrying on their great work is self explanatory:
"A ten spot saves a tot."
There are a great many persons who will not be able to spare a "ten spot," but according to the theatre men every little bit helps, and if those who can't save one life would try to save a half of one life, thereby would be some one else to provide for the other organizations which did such effective work during the war will join in with Manager George in patting over the benefit matinee.

THE LEGISLATURE

(By the Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 28th.—With the warehouse bill put aside until Monday afternoon, the senate of the Oklahoma legislature today was prepared to give consideration to other bills awaiting disposition and possibly to hear the introduction of new ones.
After much discussion, which lasted until after dark, the senate yesterday voted to place the warehouse bill under special call, when an amendment by Harry Glasser, of Enid, proposing that the several counties be authorized to call bond elections for the erection of warehouses, will be taken upon. Glasser argued that the southern part of the state would profit at the expense of the northern half, through the construction of warehouses designed chiefly for cotton.

"New York City's Proposed War Memorial, to Include a Public Forum, Corridor of the States, Hall of the Allies, Enduring Headquarters for the American Legion and War Work Organizations, Exposition Hall and Center of Music for the People."

Victory Hall, New York City's War Memorial, is now attracting country-wide attention by reason of the fact that its plans have been enlarged so that it will have true national influence and significance. In this connection the proviso for a corridor of states stands out most prominently. This "corridor" will encircle the great amphitheater which will have a seating capacity of ten thousand. In it each state and territory will have opportunity to memorialize its own war service as it may deem most fitting. As the full cooperation of all the states and Territories is essential to the success of this feature of the proposed Memorial, General Geo. W. Wingate, president of the Victory Hall Association, has sent letters to all the state and territorial governors explaining the project and asking for their personal endorsement of it.

Young Girl is Editor Of Smallest Paper

LIBERAL, Kan., Jan. 28.—Liberal claims the smallest newspaper and the youngest publisher in the United States. Alice C. Nichols, now 15 years old, is owner, editor, business manager, typesetter and pressman of the Nichols Journal. It is a weekly paper of from four to eight pages with two columns six inches in length.

Miss Alice first became an editor six years ago. While her father, Dr. Roscoe T. Nichols, was college surgeon at the Kansas State Agricultural college, Manhattan, Kan., Alice's brother "Billy" and other young folks built a play town which they called "Tiny Town." A newspaper was desired, so Alice was designated to handle this phase of the play town's activities. Under her charge a paper called the "Tiny Town News" appeared. It related the doings of Tiny Town citizens. Alice, who was nine years old at that time, printed the paper with a lead pencil.

Alice's father enlisted in the medical branch of the army at the outbreak of the war. When he went to camp the first issue of the Nichols Journal appeared to keep him informed as to family news. This was in August, 1917.

The paper was originally printed on a typewriter and the first edition consisted of three copies. When the paper became known, subscribers came fast. It soon became too great a task to get out the paper by typewriter, even with carbon paper. A mimeograph was installed in the editorial sanctum. This equipment also soon became inadequate and Alice purchased two cases of type. She soon became adept at type composition. When the forms are set the papers are printed on a job press in the office of the Liberal Democrat, which has given the young journalist full range in the shop. She does her own presswork.

The circulation of the Nichols Journal now exceeds 125 and is growing rapidly. It is published as an "independent newspaper." The paper has considerable advertising from local merchants. The display advertising rate is ten cents an inch. Miss Nichols declares advertising in her paper brings results.

Each issue of her paper contains an editorial which she thinks out on her way to and from school. As an example of the serious effort which she puts into her work, is the following editorial urging generosity in relief work, from a recent issue:

"With America's prosperity it seems inconceivable that there are people not far away from enlightened happiness who are in the dark abyss of ignorance. Ignorance is the base of constant war, starvation and homelessness. Ignorance throws Christian and happy people into darkness of horrible death. It is up to happy of many human beings hang on the thread of our country's generosity. Our own happiness should make us want to do our part. Share your joys!"

LEGISLATIVE TINKERING.

It cannot be denied that there is a surplus of legislation by congress and the legislatures of the states—the country is afflicted with more laws than its people know anything about, or would give strict observance to if they were familiar with them.

Legislatures of nearly every state are spending time and money attempting to cure by legal enactment ills which can be overcome only by the exercise of ordinary common sense. A state tries something new for two or three years—hardly long enough to demonstrate its practicability or lack of it—and certain interests become active in bringing about the passage of a repeal bill, at the same time proposing something else that will be just as much of an experiment. There is considerable uncertainty in industry and trade, but this uncertainty is aggravated by the hit-and-miss methods used in adoption of much legislation in the last few years. It might be well to clear the statute books of a large number of laws that are inoperative and ineffective.

But there is little reason to hope that anything will be done along the lines suggested. When a man is sent to congress or the state legislature, he goes with the idea that he was chosen for the purpose of making changes in the laws, and he proceeds to go as far as his fellow members will permit. Fewer laws and more obedience to basic principles might help to overcome the spirit of lawlessness now giving so much concern to the authorities.

TAMING THE BLONDE.

Perhaps the song writer asked a more profound question than he knew when he demanded, in the syncopated cacophany of jazz, the question: "What Makes the Wild Women Wild?"

The subject has been deeply considered by the American Association of Optometrists, which met recently in its annual convention in Chicago. And the optometrists have found the answer, too. It is nothing more or less than the ultra-violet rays in the sunlight. These rays irritate the nervous system and especially the eye. The cure, therefore, is of course to wear tinted glasses. Very simple, and it helps the business of the optometrist.

Blondes are especially liable to the affliction. And everybody, from the professor to the tired business man in the front row, center aisle, of the girly show knows how wild a wicked blonde can be.

The blondes, according to Madison Grant, the noted ethnologist, are the remnants of the Nordics, once the dominant race of Europe. The Nordics' descendants, Grant says, are the highest racial type yet developed. He fears that the race is gradually being exterminated.

Let's get a law passed that every blue-eyed, fair-haired baby doll must wear smoked glasses, and get the druggists to give a pair free with every bottle of peroxide. Civilization must be saved. The blonde must be tamed.

SYMPATHY FOR HARDING.

What a nauseating sight to see individuals and newspapers who were merciless in their attacks on President Wilson when he was at the point of death putting out pleas for sympathy for the robust man who is to succeed him! The strain upon him since election, arduous though it may have been, is not to be compared with that upon Wilson when, with health broken, he had to fight against enemies at home as well as abroad. Sympathy for Harding will be more in order when the many elements that figured in his election demand fulfillment of some of the wild promises made to them by republican politicians.

The campaign that turned every form of hyphenate hate against the democratic president and kept up slanders against him when he was too ill to reply has not been forgotten. No one more than Harding himself knows that he is in no position to make a plea for sympathy. His newspaper allowed no sentimental considerations to restrain it from criticism of former President Roosevelt in 1912 when he was in a hospital suffering from an assassin's bullet.

Moreover, pleas for sympathy for the sturdy Harding before he has even taken office not only seem out of place under these circumstances, but they are disquieting. If republican office-seekers alone can distress him at the start, what about the real burdens of his position so soon to be assumed?

The feature of this particular annual report from Postmaster General Burlison, to many, is the fact that it will be his last one.

Senator Jones will ask that the Volstead law be extended to the Philippine Islands. Move to amend by including Chicago.

General Balakavitch met the bolsheviks, after which he promptly returned to Poland and went to a hospital.

If tobacco is outlawed, one hesitates to make conjecture concerning the ingredients of a bootleg cigar.

Greece seems almost to believe that the golden days of ante bellum peace will return with Constantine.

Wichita Eagle: The Japs are sorry. Yes, and so is Wilhelm, but that doesn't bring the dead to life.

Okmulgee Times: A crisis is just ahead for the police department. It was bound to come sooner or later. The day of reckoning is not far off.

Pawhuska Capital: The worst of it is that the ideas for freak clothes for we men are usually the product of the brains of men.

Cushing News: We all like flattery; we thrive on it, but let some chap come along and tell us the truth about ourselves and we get sore as the dickens, yet we know it is true.

Bartlesville Examiner: More than one-half of the people of the United States are crowded into cities of more than 2,500 population. What is needed is a better appreciation of the things which God gives free in the country—fresh air, sunlight, freedom and space—and a lessened regard for the man-made things in town, which rob the soul and body and purse.

Sapulpa Herald: Editors of newspapers and ministers of the gospel are, alike, indispensable. With either out of the world the public would suffer. Yesterday the Herald editor was "just fooling around" at the court house. A couple as black as last night were getting a marriage license. After having secured the document they asked the newspaper man if he knew someone who could marry them. The scribbler remembered having seen Rev. J. E. Outlaw, pastor of the second Baptist church in the corridors of the court house. Cornering the couple, he rounded up the preacher, who backed the principles, with the scribe into the entrance to the stairway to the county jail, and there tied the knot. When the minister asked the nervous groom if he would take the miss for his wedded wife, he replied, "Ah shore does, parson." At this the paper man snorted and nearly spoiled the affair. A number of court house employees and court attaches tried to crowd into the little room to witness the ceremony but the editor had a reserved seat on a box of stationery.

Basketball Game Tonight Between Ada and Kingston

The Ada High school will play Kingston tonight in a fast game of basketball on the local high school court. Everything is in readiness for the fun and the Ada boys are eager to get into it.

The game will be called at 7:30 and will be full of excitement every minute. Both teams are in good condition to play and are eager for battle. The locals will put forth every effort to win for their school and will give the visitors a run for their money, although they have come here with the intention of carrying home the bacon. This will no doubt be one of the best high school games to be seen on the local court this season.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

Duty
 Could I but do one worthy deed,
 Or write one living line
 To fill the measure of my need—
 Could I but sow one fruitful seed,
 Then were contentment mine.
 Could I but sing one living song
 To banish mortal pain;
 Could I but right one crying wrong
 Or help one weaker soul along,
 I had not lived in vain.

So vast the universe, so cold
 The peaks to which we climb,
 So gray the skies, the stars so old!
 So many sheep strayed from the fold
 And so swift fleeting time!
 Strive as I may, somehow it seems
 That each succeeding sun
 Finds me yet distant from my dreams.
 And paths rock-strewn, with swollen streams
 And no day's journey done!

Yet must I carry on the right,
 Still I must do my best,
 So, when I pass from out the night
 Into the day, into the light
 My weary soul may rest.

 The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church were very delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. P. Ross last Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock with Mesdames S. H. Mount and Ross and hostesses. The afternoon was enjoyably spent in talking of future plans for the society and the subject for discussion was "Argentina." The members of the First and Second districts introduced a very interesting and instructive plan of study through the means of a "scrap book" and each lady contributing some article or picture to it. This program was greatly assisted by the excellent reading given by Miss Margaret Thompson, little granddaughter of Mrs. Ross.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. O. A. Thompson of Oklahoma City, consisting of jelly rolls, whipped cream with cherries, and hot tea. Those present were Mesdames Ridings, Morris, McKindree, McKnight, Ellison, Mason, Duncan, Montgomery, Jones, King, Brians, Huber, McKellar, Melton, Herndon, A. F. Cowling, Harris, Smith, Mount, J. A. Cowling, Hughes, Rose and Thompson.

McSwain
A section of old China was transplanted in California during the filming of Ethel Clayton's new picture, "Crooked Streets," which will be the feature attraction at the McSwain Theater next Saturday. The story is laid in Shanghai and a quaint bit of the native quarter of that "Paris of the East" was erected on the banks of the Famous Players Lasky studio tank in Hollywood. On the surface of the water floated sundry punks and other Chinese small craft, while strange, barbaric dwellings were reared on the land. The quay was peopled with native dignitaries, coolies and alien sailors. Another scene represented a street in the European portion of that city and 'rickshaws mingled with motors and almond-eyed men and women with richly clad tourists. It was not such a difficult feat to secure "extras," as southern California is plentifully peopled with Chinese, but where the 'rickshaws, all genuine, an other "props" came from is a mystery.

Through all this Celestial confusion, pretty Miss Clayton moved undisputed. Having but recently returned from a long vacation spent in the Orient, the star is well acquainted with China, even when it springs up over night in California.

Paul Powell directed "Crooked Streets," and it is a Paramount Art-craft adventure-romance.

American
In "Homespun Folks" the Thomas H. Ince triumph, released through Associated Producers, Inc., human nature and country life abound. Real people do real things. There is nothing of the cocktail and limousine drama here.

The feature will be shown at the American Theater today. Today the excellent characterizations are those of Lloyd Hughes as the young country lawyer; Charles Mailes and Lydia Knott with his parents, and petite Gladys George as the girl in the case. The dog "Teddy" adds another decided touch to the picture which abounds in fine human interest situations and real paths.

Those who have seen it pronounce it a worthy companion piece to such American epics as "Way Down East" and "The Old Homestead."

Preparedness applies to the human body as well as to nations. MERIT BADGE COMMITTEE

Three Men Appointed by Executive To Serve.

The scout executive for the city of Ada has appointed three men to act as special examiners for boys who wish to pass merit badge tests. These tests will be conducted by the committee and all boys desiring badges will have to appear before them.

This was done because of the large amount involved with the passing of the tests and as the executive has little time to spare for it. The men appointed to serve of the committee are: P. Penrose, Lowery Harrell and H. E. Hamilton.

Notice, Troop 4.
All scouts of this troop will meet at the Methodist church tonight at 7 o'clock. Be on time and help make a good record.

Work Credit Report.

The next work credit report will appear February 11 and the scouts should all be represented in this report. Now is the time to get busy. Next summer will soon be here and then it may be too late. Come, Mr. Thrifty Scout, are you going to help Ada win the thrift points in the inter-city contest.

How They Stand.

Troop	Won	Lost	Per.
Troop 1	2	0	.600
Troop 2	2	0	.600
Troop 3	1	2	.450
Troop 4	0	2	.400
Troop 5	1	1	.500
Troop 6	0	1	.450

The following is the schedule: February 1, Troop 2 vs. Troop 5; February 5, Troop 2 vs. Troop 4.

FRANCIS BOY SCOUTS ARE DEFEATED IN BASKETBALL

Ada Boys Play a Fast Clean Game and Win.

The Francis Boy Scout basketball team was taken to a cleaning last Saturday night when they again invaded the city eager for a battle with the Ada scouts. The Ada team was so fast and played the game with such zeal and pep that the Francis boys didn't get a chance to win. They were swept off their feet by the rush in which the Ada boys entered the game. The final score stood 36 to 13 in Ada's favor.

Although the Francis boys were greatly outwitted and beaten, they played a keen game and stayed until the last, taking advantage of every bad play made by the Ada boys. They proved themselves as good losers this time as they proved winners once before when they were here.

More Games.
The troops have also been playing games since the last issue. Troop 5 defeated Troop 4 Saturday night following the game with Francis. The game was a very close one and was won by a close score of 9 to 7. Troop 1 defeated Troop 3 in an easily won game last Tuesday afternoon. The score was 17 to 7.

MERIT BADGES TO BE AWARDED

The Boy Scout Court of Honor of the City of Ada will award about thirty-six merit badges to scouts of the city at the Boy Scout Anniversary celebration on February 8. This is a good number of badges to be awarded and shows rapid progress is being made by the scouts here.

The boys who will receive merit badges on that day are Drew Page, Russell McAlister, Richard Simpson, Harold Allen and Carl Spangler.

It has been decided that an admission of 5 cent will be charged for admittance to all scout games of basketball from this date on. This is necessary to pay the expenses which the games call for.

NEW RECRUITS FOR BOY SCOUTS

Many new recruits have been added to the Boy Scout troops of the city during the past two weeks. The number of recruits enlisted speak well for the efforts which are being made by the scouts to help the movement to grow in the city.

The following troops have recruited boys the past two weeks:

Troop 1—Carl Marsh and Joy have been enlisted in this troop and are now working on their tests.

Methodist Troop—Harold Strohm has been enlisted into this troop and is about ready to pass his tenderfoot test.

Some Recruiters.
Farley Smith of Troop 3 is the champion recruiter in the city as

The executive has now arranged his work so that certain days of the week will be set off for boys who want help in passing the scout tests. One day will be used for boys wanting to pass the second class test and another day will be used for the boys passing the first class test.

Friday will be the day for second class scouts wishing to pass the first class test and boys wanting training in the work should see Mr. Miller at the scout headquarters after school on that day of each week. Thursday will be reserved for boys wanting to pass the second class test and scouts are asked to come after school.

Scout Week.

The week from February 6 to 13 will be observed as scout week by the thousands of scouts all over the United States and the Ada scouts have been making plans for the work to be done during this time.

The announcements and programs will be announced in the next issue.

Court House News

Eck. Walker entered a plea of guilty to a petty larceny charge Friday morning and was fined $10 and cost by Judge Brown.

W. C. Williams Sentenced.—W. C. Williams, alias Langandorff, plead guilty to a charge of grand larceny in district court Friday morning and was sentenced to six months in the penitentiary by Judge J. W. Bolen.

Judge Bolen took no action on a charge of burglary against the man, but warned him that if he did not make good after he was released from prison he would be arrested and tried on the other charge, also.

Williams served two years in the world war and that is the reason the judge let him off so light.

The larceny was committed against Honest Bill, W. O. Newton, last spring, and he was arrested here two weeks ago after Honest Bill had located him at Oklahoma City, and inveigled him to Ada and turned him over to the officers as soon as he arrived.

WHY I LIVE IN ADA

 Write the Evening News a letter telling why you live in Ada. We want to boost Ada by telling of the advantages of living here, and the people who live here know what these advantages are.
 For the best letter we will pay $5, and for the two next best we will give two half-year subscriptions to the Evening News.
 The contest closes Saturday. All letters must be sent in not later than Friday. The News will publish all letters sent in, and these will be turned over to the Chamber of Commerce to be used as advertising matter for Ada.

DEAR EDITOR: The natural resources of Ada not only furnish reasons for pride, but also are a matter of great convenience and healthful living conditions. I prefer pure spring water to the muddy water of ponds or streams, although filtered a hundred times. And I could not endure the idea of using coal for fuel again—I intend to stay where there is an inexhaustible supply of natural gas.

I live in Ada because I like to live in a live place. Ada is not a dead town. The Chamber of Commerce and Lion's Club of this city exemplify this spirit of progress. I also take pride in the fact that we have a live newspaper that presents our progress and development to outsiders.

The educational advantages of Ada are unsurpassed in any city of its size. With sufficient ward schools to place every child of the city within reach of a good school, with a high school that cannot be surpassed in spirit and efficiency, and with one of the leading normals of the state to furnish a college education, Ada offers her citizenry great opportunities in giving their children a complete education. Then, Ada is unquestionably as far advanced as any city in the state along religious and moral lines. Every church has a substantial membership, and it certainly makes a difference to us who have children as to the moral status of the town in which these children are reared.

Briefly, these are the main reasons that I have made Ada my home.
 Signed: E. V. E.

DEAR EDITOR: Although a comparative stranger, I am constrained to write a brief letter in behalf of the beautiful little city of Ada, and its thrifty spirit loving people.

Within the few short months that I have mingled with the people of Ada there seems to be a tie that binds me closer to them, their hospitality and unassuming manners is unexcelled.

After leaving Louisiana, my native state, some months ago, I traveled over a good portion of Texas and other points in Oklahoma, but after all I claim this to be the garden spot of our land.

I am favorably impressed with the future prospects of Ada, in that the outlook for oil is very promising, then the farming country which surrounds the town is excellent.

Let me speak of the various clubs of our town, viz: the Lions club, Elks club and Commercial club, these clubs are instrumental in bringing good wholesome entertainments for the interest and enjoyment of the ambitious people here. For lack of space I will not be permitted to go into detail telling the great good done by these clubs for the general welfare of the town.

The splendid schools and churches of Ada is sufficient to induce the comers to remain after observing the general attitude of the people.

The good work being done in the East Central State Normal and high schools is making for themselves a reputation complimentary to any town, as well as the other schools here.

One feature of importance is the good moral element that exists among the citizens.

The location is ideal, the county seat of Pontotoc county, near the central part of the state; supplied with good water, abundance of gas and three good railroads.

The town has a good elevation, which promotes good health as well for a pleasant place to live.

The civic attractions of the city are well worthy of the mention after the completion of Glenwood Park the people will be even more appreciative of the picturesqueness, and convenience, in the way for rest, sports, and general amusements.

 Commercialism is in the upward trend, in fact take it all around Ada is the most business like, enterprising little city within the state.

Last but not least, I wish to say, we should consider ourselves fortunate in having such a broad-minded editor who issues an interesting, helpful daily paper.

COST $10 EACH FOR KILLING BANDITS IN DETROIT

(By the Associated Press)
 DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 28.—Nine armed bandits were killed and 22 thieves wounded by Detroit police during the last three months of 1920 at an estimated cost of $10 each, according to police department reports.
 In disposing of the 31 men police-men used approximately $310 worth of ammunition, either in the shootings or in target practice to fill themselves for duels with bandits.
 To encourage target practice among police officers the department has announced it would sell cartridges at cost to patrolmen.

Church News

Forty years ago the 2nd of February, the first Christian Endeavor society was formed in Williston Chapel, Maine. Dr. Francis E. Clark, the founder of the movement in his Boston office, is during this week receiving congratulatory greetings from thousands of his friends the entire world over.
 During the past forty years, Endeavorism has spread from a handful of less than forty to over four million. There are societies organized with district and national unions in practically every country under the sun. The new made countries, formed out of the aftermath of war, today with hardly an exception all boast of C. E. unions.

 Special services commemorating the fortieth birthday of C. E. will be held Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church. A huge birthday cake with forty candles will be a feature of the service. Forty Endeavorers will take part in as many minutes and as each of the young people take part another candle will be lighted until the entire room is brightened by the candle light. Bernice Roach is the leader.
 Great ceremonies are being held over the country during this celebration. Especially in the states of the southwestern federation of Christian Endeavor, including Texas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Utah, Wyoming, Arizona and New Mexico are great plans under way.

 Many hold that C. E. is the most potent organization in the world today for world wide peace. In not a few of the war stricken countries this organization was the first to hold any kind of an international meeting. In some places the police made the Endeavorers sign a statement that they would personally be responsible for any murder, fire or riots growing out of the meeting.
 Russia is wide open to the organization. Germany has almost doubled her societies during the war period. Australia is going forward rapidly in the work, as well as England, Scotland, Norway, Sweden and all the countries of the near east have the progressive element among the young national life.

 A great world and international convention is to be held in New York City in the famous Madison Square Garden, next July 6 to 11. Delegates from every country in the world are expected to this gathering.
